VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN is a thirty-nine year old African American man presently residing in Staten Island, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, MICHAEL MCAVOY, JAMES VILAICHIT, JONATHAN HERBST, ANTHONY CIMMINO, MELISSA TACORONTE, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On April 10, 2011, at approximately 2:00 p.m., outside of plaintiff's home located at 75 Trantor Place, Staten Island, New York, the defendant officers brutally and unjustifiably assaulted and battered plaintiff.

13. In particular, the defendants MICHAEL MCAVOY, JAMES VILAICHIT, JONATHAN HERBST, and ANTHONY CIMMINO, grabbed plaintiff, slammed him to the ground, and repeatedly punched and kicked him in the head and body. During this brutal and unjustified attack, a defendant officer, believed to be CIMMINO, kicked plaintiff with great force in his left eye. All of this occurred in the presence of MELISSA TACORONTE, a police supervisor, who stood by and failed to intervene.

14. The defendants' acts of brutality caused plaintiff to suffer serious physical injuries that included, but were not limited to, a ruptured globe of the left eye and a laceration on plaintiff's nose.

15. After the defendant officers beat plaintiff, defendant VILAICHIT accompanied plaintiff to Richmond University Medical Center where plaintiff underwent emergency medical treatment, including surgery to repair plaintiff's eye, and stitches to close the laceration on his nose.

16. Plaintiff was discharged from the hospital in the afternoon of April 11, 2011.

17. The defendants thereafter transported plaintiff to the 120th police precinct stationhouse and imprisoned plaintiff therein.

18. The defendant officers caused plaintiff to be imprisoned until his arraignment in Richmond County Criminal Court on April 12, 2011.

19. Defendant MELISSA TACORONTE supervised defendants MICHAEL MCAVOY, JAMES VILAICHIT, JONATHAN HERBST, ANTHONY CIMMINO and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise presided over the defendants' use of excessive force.

20. In addition, MELISSA TACORONTE, who was present during the aforementioned events, failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein, despite a meaningful opportunity to do so.

21. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising of its employees, due to discrimination against plaintiff based on his race, and due to a de facto policy of falsification.

22. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, are insufficiently trained regarding the use of force, and that they engage in falsification.

23. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiffs' civil rights.

24. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

25. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his liberty and his constitutional rights.

36. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

38. The defendants assaulted and battered plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN, because of his national origin, and/or race, or otherwise failed to intervene to prevent such treatment committed in their presence by other NYPD officers.

39. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN was deprived of his rights under the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution.

40. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

46. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “45” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

50. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

51. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York Police Department included, but were not limited to, using excessive force against individuals. In addition, the City of New York engaged in a policy, custom or practice of inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees that was the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN’S rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of the City of New York to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

52. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of plaintiff ADRIAN ANGEVIN.
